

An Excerpt from Griffin Brook Tack Shop e:buddy mail:

“Info Night!! Are you showing your horse for the first time or maybe just new at it? We have an info night for you! Monday, March 29th we will host a round-table info night for everyone who is showing and would love to know what to expect. From what to wear to what judges are looking for. How to fill out a show form, what is USEF and what to know about it. How to sign up for points in the different show circuits that are offered to NH riders. We will have representatives here from judges to show committee members, stewards, organization reps, etc. They will be available to answer all your questions about how to get into showing. This info night is great for kids and adults of any level.

Here’s a short list of the folks that will be answering your questions:

Yvonn Coleman-Larson – USDF dressage instructor and judge

Christy Balch – NHH&TA, NH Arabian, Horse Show official extraordinaire

Cher Griffin – NEHC “J” horse show judge

Southern NH Dressage will be here to show you their schedule and sign you up!

TBA: Reps from Silver Heels, Oak Rise Farm, NEHC, North Shore Horseman’s Association, 4-H and many more. Stay tuned and pass the word! It’s free and starts at 6:30. Look for an E-Buddy update with new names added to the list.”
